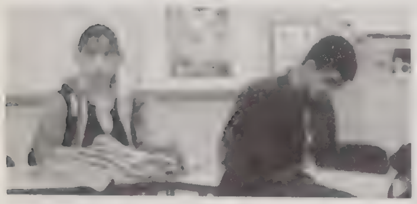
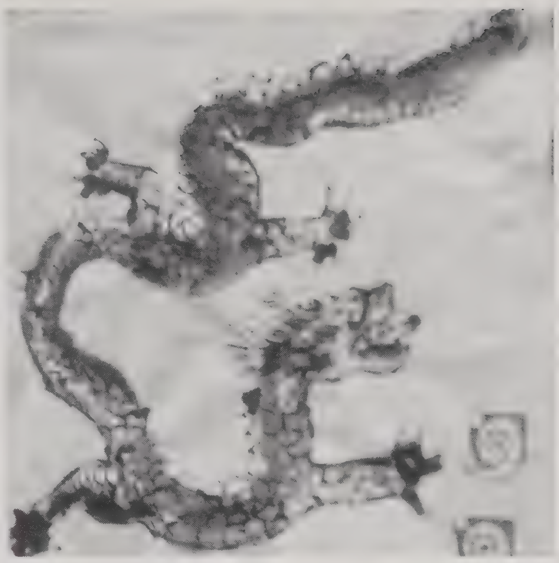
GLOBAL STUDIES at SHS: Honors Topics in Asian and African Studies*This page*: Superintendent of Schools Dr. Bent shares his travel experiences in China and Japan with the class. His presentation included comparisons of their histories, governments, education, and current world status. Another presenter was Floral Street's Mr. Wilson. HTAA students were most interested in Japanese food (one of Mr. Wilson's particular interests) and arts and crafts. Mr. Wilson also demonstrated origami and introduced paper making. With the help of student Andy Cho, students folded miniature "Samurai" helmets and then the larger size to wear. Opposite page: HTAA students actually "make paper".

World Civ Freshmen and Honors Topics Seniors fill in statistical charts focused on selected African countries: Their date of independence (most after WW II), literacy rates, infant mortality, life expectancy, PPP (purchasing power parity - the measure of a country's productivity), major trading partners and goods, AIDs deaths/infection rates. The Chinese Culture Club meets bi-weekly to view videos, discuss Chinese Culture, work on calligraphy projects, "cook Chinese". MECCA meets every Friday to plan displays, discuss Islamic issues, and, most recently, to prepare for an Islamic World mural (companion pieces to those seen in backgrounds on these pages - Japan, China, Africa).

Junior Wajida Syed, President of MECCA (Muslim Endeavor to Create Cultural Awareness) discussed the club's activities (discussions such as the recent "veils" [hajab] issue in Britain and school displays) and, importantly, their work with other SHS groups: Asian Club, Chinese Culture Club, Black History Committee, Amnesty International to plan collaborative events. For instance, the inter club/cultural "Mix-It-Up Day" is a pre-Thanksgiving Event. Wajida feels that "diversity can only be valued if understood. Unfortunately, there is little in the curriculum that helps with this. So, in clubs, rather than focusing on the celebratory piece, we struggle with definitions and stereotypes."



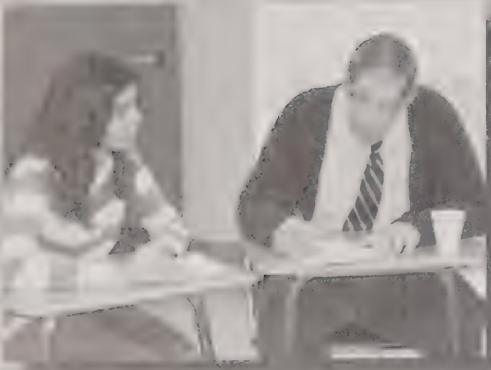
Senior Erika Puccio emphasized the fast growing importance of Global Education: "...in the not too distant future, today's Shrewsbury students are apt to become tomorrow's local, regional, and perhaps, national leaders and business people. We must begin now to broaden and deepen information about the world's cultures, customs, issues, languages and histories."

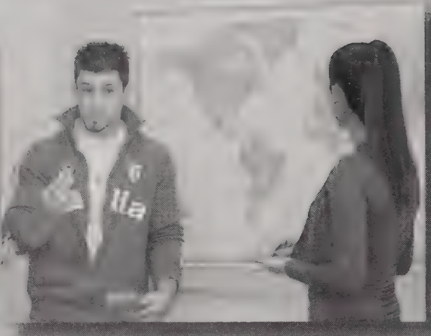


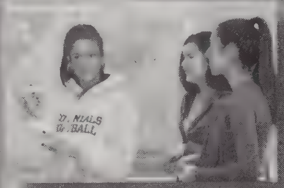
Senior Cindy Zhou remarked that the disparity of wealth between North and South Korea shows the importance of globalization. This was a discussion issue in the Honors Topics in Asian and African Studies class. South Korea chose to embrace economic globalization whereas North Korea secluded itself. Today, the standard of living is much higher in South Korea. Indeed, Cindy added, here in the United States, economic globalization increases income by one trillion dollars per year (despite the frequently held US belief that such globalization results in less jobs, productivity and income for the US). Some economists indicate that if this present globalization trend continues, world poverty could be substantially diminished.

Junior Sijia Wang is a member of Model United Nations Club, which promotes global awareness and interest in foreign affairs. Students research the stance of their assigned country and negotiate with other delegations during Model UN conferences. In her presentation to the School Committee, Sijia said that many people criticize the UN for inefficiency and corruption. But she believes that the UN "helps to avert violent outbreaks and attempts to alleviate precarious situations." She also said that Americans are quick to point out the negative effects of globalization, such as offshoring and outsourcing. "However, we are slow to realize all of the benefits of globalization to our economy." Coming from China, she thinks that she has a more favorable view of globalization.

The HTAA class tabulated the recent SHS surveys distributed to every student focusing on their country of origin and cultural heritage. In explaining the world flags display presented in the video, Cindy explained: "We tabulated the results and found that over 150 students representing over 45 countries were born outside the United States. That's roughly ten percent of the school population!"







World Civ Freshmen and Honors Topics Seniors fill in statistical charts focused on selected African countries: Their date of independence (most after WW II), literacy rates, infant mortality, life expectancy, PPP (purchasing power parity - the measure of a country's productivity), major trading partners and goods, AIDs deaths/infection rates. Mrs.Teggart is chair of Foreign Languages. In addition to French, Spanish and Latin at SHS, she oversees the more recently organized Chinese Language classes - next year to be in Grades 5, 6, 7 (and within a couple of years at SHS!).
Mrs. Teggart will be travelling to China in April (our final submission date is before February Vacation) so, look for Mrs. Teggart and her travels in the "supplement". The Art Department gives students the opportunity to learn about differing cultures through the mask styles they produce.
Mr. Hruskoci has served in the Peace Corp in Nepal and visited Japan on a Toyota Grant. He shares both experiences with SHS students.
Dr. Klug teaches Honors Topics: European History. Students learn about the European Union and the varying impacts of Globalization. Agnes Nam (Amnesty International and one of its current topics "Dimes for Darfur") brings awareness about the Sudan to SHS students. Senior Economics students start a Global Economics project pinpointing where goods bought in the US actually originate: El Salvador, Chile, Hong Kong, China, India, Sri Lanka, Turkey, Costa Rica. Mexico, Canada, Japan and dozens of others!

Sincere best wishes on your well-deserved retirement after thirty-five years of dedication to Shrewsbury High School's students. Amazing, it only took you forty-seven years to finally graduate from SHS!! Cheer up Ken Largess there is still hope for you.

You have served as a teacher, mentor and friend to many students throughout your career as a Technology Education / Industrial Arts Teacher. You have touched many lives and encouraged countless students to graduate and pursue their dreams. There are not many educators that can say they are still in touch with their students from their first year of teaching. . You truly mark the end of an era and are the last of the "dying breed" of good ole' fashioned "Shop Teachers." Shrewsbury High School's Technology Department will suffer a tremendous loss. You've earned your stripes and your retirement. It's time for you to take that checkered flag for your final lap to victory and head out on the highway of life. Happy camping!

We love you!

There are so many things we want for you, so many wishes in our hearts as we watch you grow into your own life…We wish you a world of adventure and experience-and also the serenity that comes from listening to your inner voice as the world rushes around you…We wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence-along with the wisdom to choose your battles carefully…We wish you the satisfaction of seeing your goals achieved and also the true contentment that is born of simple things – work well-done, friends well-loved, moments caught and cherished. And our greatest wish is that you will always remember how much you are loved – for you are a good and caring person—a man we are proud to have for a son and brother.

My Ryan,

I wish you the best this world has to offer. Who would have thought that by making fun of me in 6th grade Spanish class you'd win my heart over? Sticking side by side, through thick and thin, sixth grade to senior year, you have exposed me to true love. The bond we share is unexplainable. Thank you. For the talks. The shirts to cry on. And most importantly, the laughs. Your love has shaped me into who I am today. The world is out there waiting for you. Your opportunities are endless. Make the most of your future. Allow fate to take its course.

Laura,

From the day you were born you have filled our lives with so much joy. We turned around for a split second and you grew up! It seems like yesterday a teary-eyed, redhead got on a bus to Beal School, and now you are graduating from S.H.S. Whether you are dancing, playing at a concert, involved in the play, doing volunteer work to help others, or just being with friends – you do it with dedication, kindness and always with a smile. Never lose your Ryan sense of humor – we enjoy it everyday! As you go forward we hope you experience as much happiness as you have given us for 18 years. Love, Mom & Dad

Congratulations Laura! We are all so proud of all your hard work, and I know that you have set yourself up to succeed in whatever you do. Lots of love and best wishes for the future. Patrick

Dear Erin,

Your beautiful smile has a powerful influence on those around you. We are so proud of what you've done and who you have become. You are caring, giving, intelligent, full of love and have a great sense of humor - traits that make you a very special person, daughter and sister.

You've worked extraordinarily hard and have been able to manage your time extremely well – schoolwork, spending time at the barn…. riding, working and still having time for family and friends.

You've brought us so much love and laughter. We've had so many good times together and will cherish the memories forever.

We know you'll succeed at whatever you do. Keep smiling, love what you do, work hard, save your money (spend some), and know that we are there for you….always.

It always amazed me when I got older that a ten dollar bill wasn't worth as much as a one dollar bill and that pooling our money at holidays meant you kept the money because you were older and I might lose it. Kindergarten Graduation

Lindsey,

I'll never forget when I first saw you my sophomore year, God how I hated you. Fate however thought it would be funny to play a trick on us, and thus we started to date that same summer. We have spent nearly three years together. We've been in every fight possible, and came out the other side together. Through tears of pain, tears of joy, good times and bad, we always come out on the other side together. You will do so many great things with your life, my Beautiful Babe, my Chibby, my love.

With love from your Gully,
Loc

Dan,

Time has gone by so fast since the day I met you. Our memories are endless and no words can express what you mean to me. You are not only my boyfriend but you are my best friend. Dan you are the nicest, caring, and most precious person in my life. We both know we are meant for each other, and we know that nothing will ever change that. You will always be on my mind and in my heart. I love you babe.

Love always,
Kathryn

Dear Justin,
Every time I look at you, I can't believe that I had in me all this time the power to create such a perfect child as you. As I hold you close to my heart, I pray that I will be here to see and share all of your goals and accomplishments. Never before has life seemed so precious to me. I wish that I could bottle this time that we share together.

I remember you as a baby. I looked upon your sleeping angelic face. I was and continue to be amazed by you. When you grow older perhaps you won't remember how I held you every night until you fell asleep. But, my son, these precious moments I will never forget. I know that life will hold many triumphs and trials for you. I want to be there to share in your joys and to be your shoulder when you need to cry. I feel such a fierce and overwhelming desire to protect you from all the evils of the world. Sometimes I will hold on a little too tight. Forgive me. You are special to me. There are many lessons that I want to teach you. Perhaps the hardest ones will be the ones that you learn yourself. I wish I could learn them for you. Please know that no matter what, you have my unconditional and undying love. Even if we live forever, I couldn't even begin to show you how much you mean to me and what a great son and brother you are. I would give my life for you without a second's hesitation. Please know that you are and always will be the light of my life. You have made my life complete. Love, Mom.

PS. It is said that the true test of a person's character is what he does when no one is watching. I want you to know that I think you have such wonderful character!!
Love, Mom and Dad.

Marissa,

Since our very first play-date in 7th grade, we have become attached at the hip. Whether it has been going "punk" concerts, babysitting Hil, dancing on your floor, quoting Cartmen, making slushies, baking (or at least attempting to bake) cupcakes, getting in trouble, giggling at stupid "Your Mom" jokes or just hanging around, we've had oodles fun over the years. You have truly made the past six years the best years of my life.

As Thomas Fuller said, "If you have one true friend, you have more than your share" (Translation: I am spoiled rotten) Thank you for being the sister I never had.

Well Princess, Congratulations! We made it!

Congrat's on beating us on field day.

Class of 2009!

We love you EmTru!

In 2005 our soccer girls were proud and with good reason
They found that they were playoff bound post another no loss season
Patience, hard work, dedication ultimately pay off
This was quite clearly seen in their soccer season playoff.

Our starting keeper got nicked up pre post season start
A lesser team would have given up, for lack of a champion's heart
When the going gets tough, it's often said, the tough themselves get going
In these tough times our girl came through without possibly knowing

That in 2006 she once again due to circumstance so tragic
Would have to step up early and repeat her playoff magic.
It's a privilege, no an honor, to be the family of one who
To one and all and forever more is known to be EmTru!

But more than blocking soccer shots makes Emily ultra norm
Her loving heart, her generous soul, can she dance up a storm!
Her sense of humor, wit and style and compassion round her out
To know her is to love her, of this there is no doubt.

On this too there's no debate, a day we'll long remember,
Nineteen hundred eighty eight, the 18th of December.
And love you too, we do EmTru, no matter where you go
Remember who's your daddy, mom, big sis and little bro!

We love you and are so proud of you Emily!

Retrospective: 1992~2007

1993 (Volume XXXIV) at $25 for 208 pages ("our" shortest), but all of us were new at the Yearbook "business". We literally had to learn from scratch, starting in the Fall and having to meet deadlines THAT very semester. Right from the beginning, we had the tremendous luck of having staff "families" (Samara, Ethier) which has continued to the "LAST" O'Leary issue (Livingstone) and the loyalty of staff continuing year after year until graduation! What a difference this has made through the years! Colonial Yearbook

This is page 296, not our longest Yearbook,but still $30. and the one containing a number of transitional differences: Mrs. LeBlanc remained from last year and was joined by Mrs. Cobb, Ms.Wilkinson and Ms. Davis: introducing technological innovations and formats. More digital work is evident than ever before... (Mrs. Cobb seemed to be everywhere - that Hilton was not - with her camera!). Ms. Davis provided opening color collages and Fall Sports; Mrs. Cobb, Academics and Clubs including the management of the first ever "Club Photo Day". Ms. Wilkinson is a whiz with word processing: Underclassmen and Index, as well as Winter Sports captions. Mrs. LeBlanc completed the Music segment and shared the Family, Friends & Community pages. Mrs. O'Leary monitored the rest (mainly making sure that the Senior Staff met "the deadlines"!) You meet these folks in their younger days: Cindy Zhou, Sumeera Gupta, Laura Ryan, Courtney Lowrie, Thomas Livingstone, and Alex Olivares (Alex is studying in Germany THIS year, but put in some twenty hours of work on Underclassmen and Senior layouts LAST spring). Hilton Photography shot most of the photos, from Seniors and Underclassmen, through Sports, Proms, Clubs, Academic Candids, Music Performance and Class Plays. Mrs. Stone and Ms. McManus were our contacts at Hiltons.

Mr. Clough and parent Mr. Callaghan were also contributors; Mrs. O'Leary still took a few photos, as well as, managing finances! Another "NEW" event is this year's publisher: Walsworth and Representative Mrs.Sidwell. All subscribers should be on the lookout for the "Extra" (or Supplement) next Fall (Mrs. O'Leary's LAST Yearbook efforts!)
